

Product Markets Service: Short-Term

Examine oil product imbalances and explore growth opportunities with our analysis of supply, demand and pricing dynamics

Monthly crack spread forecasts for:

8+

products

6

in key refining centres

Monthly product balances for over

37

countries/regions

Monthly margin forecasts for 35

regional refinery/crude combinations

Weekly
regional refining margin updates

Interactive
global data tool

4 global commodity reports and 6 regional summary dashboards

Use it to:

Understand how changes in supply and demand will drive expansion and contraction of refining and storage capacities

Plan short- and long-term production, based on country and regional oil product balances, inter-regional trade, prices and specifications

Identify the key seasonal trends in oil product demand

Develop trading strategies based on country and region product balances, and price and margin forecasts

Understand how changes in imports and exports will impact product balances, and prices and margins forecasts

Analyse trends in crude differentials and product crack spreads